This extraordinary property with a magnificent and historically notable exterior has been completely renovated in 2009 to achieve a spectacular contemporary ambiance within. The renovation and finishes are of highest quality throughout the living room, the stunning designer kitchen, and two bedroom suites, one of these retaining its original stone fireplace and direct access to the pool terrace. The interior's superb design flows from room to room in a ambiance of light and spaciousness. From it's privileged and secluded location near the top of the UNESCO World Heritage-designated walled city the property enjoys unsurpassable views of the island and the sea as far as the eye can see. The 125 square-meter terrace features a beautifully designed swimming pool and offers an exquisite ambiance. This privileged and peaceful situation is within walking distance to sophisticated venues as well as to the center of vibrant Ibiza Town.
