This recently-built villa is set on a gentle rise of land overlooking the sea and Es Vedrá islet to the west, and the Estany des Peix inlet to the east, and is convenient to the village of San Francisco Javier and the Port of La Savina. The villa comprises a living room/dining room with fireplace, a separate kitchen, three bedrooms and two baths. A covered terrace includes a dining area and barbecue, and a 60-square-meter enclosed garage provides additional storage areas. A well and cistern with 110-ton capacity and subterranean telephone connection are additional features of the property. Olive, fig and fruit trees provide abundant produce and an attractive setting for the villa.
